

CDA revokes share transfer for the sale of Fort Fun

January 31, 2012

CDA has been informed by German authorities that representatives of One World Group, the purchaser of the Fort Fun park (see press release of January 4, 2012), were suspected of producing false documents concerning the bank guarantee associated with payment of the balance of the transaction price (€5.75 million), to take place on January 31, 2012.

To protect its interests on a precautionary basis, and by virtue of a provision specific to German law, CDA has sent the buyer a notification of the revocation of the share transfer executed at the time of the transaction. Fort Fun will be thus reincorporated into the Group's scope of consolidation as of today, pending further information as to the outcome of this situation.

Meanwhile, CDA is continuing to explore all other means of legal recourse and settlement of the situation.
